Listen to Geologic Tales of Lake Tahoe

Friday, March 30, 7 p.m.

WNCC Carson City, Marlette Hall

Info: 775-445-3000

How was Lake Tahoe formed? Was it created by a meteorite? Volcanic explosion? Glaciers? Many people visit Lake Tahoe each year but few know much about the geology of the largest alpine lake in North America. WNCC Geology Professor Winnie Kortemeier will share interesting facts, intriguing photos and geologic history about Lake Tahoe in this free lecture, the third installment of Western's 2006-2007 Faces, Voices & Stories Cultural Series.

Western Nevada to Face No. 7 Southern Nevada this Week

Friday, March 30, 1 & 4 p.m., Saturday, March 31, Noon & 3 p.m.

WNCC Carson City, John L. Harvey Field

Info: 775-445-3000

The Western Wildcats will host cross-state rival Community College of Southern Nevada in a key four-game match-up this weekend at John L. Harvey Field.

Doubleheaders are set to begin at 1 p.m. Friday and noon Saturday. Friday is Nevada State Legislators Day and Saturday is Charter Communications Day.

Western (19-14-1, 13-7) took three of four games last weekend against the College of Eastern Utah in Scenic West Athletic Conference play. The victories left Western in third place in the conference, but now only two games behind SWAC leader College of Southern Idaho, and one game behind CCSN.

Tickets are $6 for adults; $3 for seniors 60 and older, youth 18 and younger, and WNCC faculty and staff; and free for WNCC students, as well as children age 4 and younger.
